

CECONOMY is the leading platform for companies, concepts and brands in the field of consumer electronics in Europe. With the MediaMarktSaturn Retail Group as our core business, we are the number one in nine key European markets. By actively catering for our customers' needs, we aim to further develop our business in order to achieve profitable, sustainable growth.

Investor Relations Manager (m/w/d)

Düsseldorf | Permanent Contract | Full time

Your tasks

- Investor Relations – in constant touch with the capital markets
- Contact for financial analysts and portfolio managers in addition to occasional requests from retail investors
- Ensure access to equity capital by building and developing relationships to investors as well as buy-side and sell-side analysts
- Further development of the 'Equity Story' based upon CECONOMY's strategy, financials and broader market developments
- Liaise with strategy, controlling, finance, tax and accounting departments to understand and challenge KPIs and developments
- Prepare up-to-date corporate information in a consistent, reliable and non-selective fashion for communication to the capital markets
- Assist in positioning CECONOMY in the financial community (institutional and retail investors, buy- and sell-side analysts, SRI, rating agencies) in all major financial centers worldwide
- Ensure all relevant information is understood by market participants and reflected in their assessment
- Actively contribute to shaping CECONOMY's strategy and reporting such as assistance in writing result statements, news releases, speeches, presentations etc.

Requirements

- Background in investor relations or financial analysis
- Understanding of the relationship between income statement, cash flow statement and balance sheet
- Experience in preparing financial data for communication purposes
- Ability to work in a structured manner under time pressure
- Fluent in English and German

We offer

- You can contribute yourself and your ideas to a working environment with flat hierarchies, a strong team spirit and an open-minded way of working together and help shape the future of our company
- You will be given many opportunities for personal and professional development, if desired also in the international field
- You have the opportunity to use our flexible working hours model as well as our home office regulations to arrange your working hours individually and to suit your needs
- You will be remunerated attractively and competitively, and with our support you can build up a company pension scheme and benefit from a comprehensive range of other social benefits

Have we caught your interest? Then we are looking forward to your online application!

CECONOMY (<https://www.ceconomy.de/>) is an employer committed to Equal Employment Opportunities. We offer all qualified applicants full equal opportunities.

Contact

CECONOMY AG
Human Resources
Verena Hebing
+49 (211) 5408 7131
jobs@ceconomy.de